

Job description

CFO _ Chief Financial Officer

inApril is currently recruiting a CFO.

Tasks and responsibilities

- Be a key player in setting the strategy and developing the company for growth
- Execute the companies' financial strategy
- Develop and manage Banking relationships
- Responsible for investor relations
- Develop financial plans for growth
- Manage accounting procedures and record keeping
- Forecasting, analysis, controlling and reporting
- Assist in reviewing/negotiating larger client contracts

Requirements

- At least 5 years working experience across the accounting and finance
- Cash Management, Financial Accounting, and Corporate Finance Competence
- Must be a self-starter who is detail-oriented and well-organized
- Proactive and with an entrepreneurial mindset
- MSc degree in Business Administration, accounting, finance, economics, or other related fields.
- Experience of working in a global business environment is a benefit
- Fluent English verbal and written language inApril (www.inapril.com) is an independent provider of complete and fully automated ocean bottom node (OBN) seabed seismic solutions to seismic companies. We offer a step change in safe and efficient operations of seabed seismic acquisition.

Applications to be sent to post@inapril.com with the subject "CFO - Application". For further information on this position, please send an email to the same address with the subject "CFO-Information"

By applying for this position you accept that inApril store your application for a period of up to 6 months.