

Field Technicians

Job brief

We are looking for self-going Field Technicians to support our customers in their OBN operations. The position typically involves 60 to 80 travel days per year. Training will be provided.

Responsibilities

Onshore

- Equipment maintenance and testing at our production and repair facilities outside Oslo
- Preparation of equipment for projects
- Cooperate with technical team and share information across the organisation

Offshore

- Manage site installations globally
- Comprehend customer requirements and make appropriate recommendations/briefings
- Diagnose errors or technical problems in the field and determine proper solutions
- Build positive relationships with customer representatives

Requirements and skills

- Technical degree or certification
- Minimum 5 years seismic experience involving offshore work
- Ability to troubleshoot, test and repair electronic and mechanical technical equipment
- Ability to work flexible shifts and to adapt to changing work schedules
- Fluent English verbal and written language
- Experience in project management will be an advantages inApril (www.inapril.com) is an independent provider of complete and fully automated ocean bottom node (OBN) seabed seismic solutions to seismic companies. We offer equipment on a rental or sales basis.

Applications to be sent to post@inapril.com with the subject "Field Technician - Application". For further information on this position, please send an email to the same address with the subject "Field Technician – Information"

By applying for this position, you accept that inApril store your application for a period of up to 6 months.